

PLEASE COME AND ENJOY A CONCERT BY
MATURI MALE VOICE CHOIR
FROM JAPAN
ON
SUNDAY 6th SEPTEMBER 2009
AT
the grounds of LANE END CONFERENCE CENTRE
Church Road, Lane End, High Wycombe, Bucks HP14 3HH
from 2:00pm

Programme (subject to change) :

Part One: Japanese Folk Songs - 黒田節、ソーラン節 etc
Japanese Popular Songs - さくら、夏の思い出 etc

Interval

Part Two: English Ballads - Scarborough Fair
Irish Anthem - Londonderry Air
Opera - “Va, pensiero, sull’ali dorate”
Male Chorus - Let all men sing, Shenandoah etc

The Maturi Male Choir was formed in 2005. Maturi is taken from the Italian words, “maturo, maturi” meaning “mature men”. In Japanese, maturi (matsuri) means “festival”. The choir currently has 30 members and under the leadership of Kazuo Kobayashi, one of the most famous tenore lirico in Japan, they perform a wide repertoire ranging from Japanese folk songs to classical music.

Admission: FREE

Please bring your own picnic chairs, rugs etc
(please come even if it rains as contingency plans have been made).

RSVP by E-Mail to: teruko.iwanaga@lane-end-conferences.co.uk or Tel: 01494-882091